About This Game

Sleepwalker is an isometric puzzle where a sleepwalking man in his pajamas needs to be guided to safety. The character walks automatically and cannot be controlled directly. Instead the player needs to put up signs and objects in the environment to help him around and to avoid contact with monsters. Signs are collected in a vertical bar on the right side of the screen. Farther levels include new types of items. The game contains about 100 levels.

Good evening, I'm Taro Heibon.
I'm 56 years old, have a family,
and work for an IT company in City X.
I got all my courage together and went into
this "Cos-play bar!"
Well, actually, I must say that I'm such a super masochistic guy.
I'd rather die than tell my wife that I have this secret desire to get abused verbally by girls
in cos-play uniforms.
